

JANUARY 2022

40
Years
ANNIVERSARY

The calendar change to 2022 signifies the year that commemorates the 40th anniversary of The AIM Companies™. It's an incredible milestone, especially for a business that started out as a relatively small outfit all those years ago.

Who could have foreseen that a company launching with a single product that encouraged people to drink grass in a glass would continue to thrive for four decades? That nutrition is still sourced from green fields that are harvested to become the juice powder of young barley leaves, better known as BarleyLife.

Progressively, new AIM products have been launched over time, from Herbal Fiberblend to CoCoa LeafGreens . The result is the diverse line of beneficial products represented in this special catalog edition of Living Well magazine.

During the past 40 years, it has been business-building Members who deliver this line of nutrition that works. Never a retail operation, AIM offers Members the choice of being a part of the driving force behind product sales by becoming independent distributors, most of whom operate their businesses from the comfort of their own homes.

Integrating AIM nutrition into your lifestyle whether for personal use only or the financial opportunity of sharing it as well can take you on a new life voyage. Many Members have shared their individual journeys as testimonials, each unique in their own way.

For the AIM Family, 40 years adds up to a shared journey that continues in many directions on different sides of the world, for there are countless ways to travel along the AIM path of wellness. Whether you are a seasoned traveler or someone new to this healthy trail, you are warmly welcomed at AIM.

3 steps to living well

Eliminate. Make lifestyle choices that result in optimum health. Exercise regularly, get enough quality sleep and eliminate toxic stress in your life. Of course, don't smoke, drink to excess or abuse drugs. Regularly cleansing the body of toxins (detoxification) is vital. Toxins can be eliminated from the body with the right foods and AIM products.

Nourish. Eat a balanced and sensible diet built around whole foods. Avoid overeating and large portions. Drink eight glasses of pure water daily, and use AIM whole-food concentrates and supplements to help nourish your cells, enabling them to operate at peak efficiency.

Replenish. Our bodies often require nutritional supplementation to replenish vital nutrients. As shown in this catalog, The AIM Companies™ offers a variety of products to assist with your nutritional intake and health.

The AIM Story

Forty years ago, a tiny company began a pioneering work: bringing green barley juice powder to the world. Today, The AIM Companies™ has blossomed into an international health and wellness company with thousands of active Members in several countries. AIM offers an array of high-quality nutritional products that improve people's lives.

Our global headquarters is located in Nampa, Idaho, just west of Idaho's capital, Boise. In addition to our operations in the United States, we support AIM offices and operations in several countries worldwide: Australia, Canada, New Zealand, South Africa and the United Kingdom.

Nutrition That Works

Since the introduction of AIM's first green powder in 1982, improvements to the planting, growing, harvesting and juicing of barley grass have continued to increase the nutritional value of BarleyLife. In fact, research and development is an ongoing endeavor at AIM that maintains effective products with only the finest ingredients available. Carefully tested and formulated for daily use, supplemental nutrition from AIM boosts plant-based power.

Journey with Confidence

Together with AIM Members, our mission is to continue improving people's lives through health and free enterprise as we journey confidently into the future. As The AIM Companies thrives, our core values continue to set the tone for our success:

- Respect for the individual
- Commitment to excellence
- Dedication to customer service
- Success through personal initiative

As part of this mission, our Members have the opportunity to make money, and we're very proud of that. Even more important is the ability to make a difference in people's lives while being a part of something special.

The AIM Advantage

The partnership between The AIM Companies and Members provides an opportunity for anyone who would like to market the AIM products to the world through a home-based business. With that, you have personal freedom:

- AIM handles the logistics of your customer downline in markets all over the world.
- Having an AIM home-based business allows for tax-deductible expenses.
- There are no limitations on what you can earn.

In essence, you are in the right place with AIM. Since its founding, AIM has paid out over a billion dollars in compensation earnings to Members who have created their own home-based businesses by sharing our products with others.
